NEWSLETTER MAY 2020

MEETING SATURDAY 23 MAY 2020 11 AM

Due to the continuing spread of the SARS CoV 2 virus, the May meeting will be a ZOOM meeting. There will be a program about how to speak Glaswegian. Here are the details: (Remember, If you want to drink all day, you have to start in the morning)

ZOOM works on Android, Apple, and PC, as well as corded and cordless phones. Obviously, you won't be able to see the meeting if you use a corded/corded phone, but you will be able to hear it, and make comments. (Dial 1 646 558 8656 US (New York)) Give Meeting ID and PW when prompted. If you are using an Android or an iPhone device or a Mac, go to the app store and download the free app. For PC, go to www.ZOOM.us. Allow video and audio when you join. Contact me at fbsdmd@gmail.com if you need help.

Time: May 23, 2020 11:00 AM Eastern Time

IS SCOTLAND A SCANDANAVIAN COUNTRY?

Here is an interesting idea, reported in an article from the Scotsman newspaper:

The major Finnish newspaper, Helsingin Sanomat, has published a long piece entitled "The Sixth Nordic country". It's about Scotland. Finnish readers learned that "gradually England and Scotland have been drifting apart, almost like tectonic plates," and asked the question whether, after independence, Scotland's new friends "could... be found from Finland and other Nordic countries?"
