NEWSLETTER OCTOBER 2011

OCTOBER MEETING - 20 OCTOBER

THURSDAY

Presentation of the report from the Nominating Committee will take place at the meeting. Also final discussion of the By-Laws update will be presented for the second time, for final approval. There will not be a formal program, but there will be refreshments, perhaps pecan sandies.

IT WILL BE A BUSY NOVEMBER!

A HIGHLAND EVENING

Once again we will join with the Schenectady Pipe Band and the Braemar Dancers at the GE Theatre, Proctors, Schenectady. November 4, 7:30. I have attached a flyer to this newsletter, print it out, give it to your friends, put it on the supermarket bulletin board. This is a fundraiser, as well as a wonderful evening of Celtic fellowship.

SELL TICKETS

Tickets are available through schenectadystandrews.org, proctors.org, and at the Proctors box office. If you need tickets, use the above sources, or get in touch with me, and I'll pick up tickets and bring them to your house. fbstdmd@gmail.com, 518-346-7105. Hey-there are only 430 seats at the GE Theatre-help us fill them. Bring friends, relatives, drag someone off the street.

KIRKIN' O' THE TARTANS

Come to St. George's Church in Clifton Park for this great traditional event. November 13, 2011. There will be pipers, drummers, blessing of the tartans, a joyous church service. Come in your finest highland dress. The service starts at 9:30. If you want to be in the processional, and who wouldn't, be there at 9:15. Rain or shine. Refreshments follow the service.

ST. ANDREW'S NIGHT

Come join us to celebrate our Patron Saint. Wednesday, November 30, 2011. It will be held again at the Stockade Inn in Schenectady. There will be Haggis, introduced to the immortal words of Bobbie Burns. Details will be available soon. And speaking of The Immortal Bard, there will be a celebration of his life at Celtic Hall, in January, 2012. More details will be available for this gala soon.
